[Correction]

Triennial Review of Water Quality Standards

An error occurred in the document proposing to amend 25 Pa. Code Chapter 93 (relating to water quality standards), which appeared at 38 Pa.B. 236, 248 (January 12, 2008).

The Human Health Criteria for 1,3-Dichloro-Propylene (PP NO 18V) should be .34 not 34. The Criteria Continuous Concentrations for Methylene Chloride (PP NO 22V) should be 2400 not 200.

The correct version of the criteria for these chemicals is as follows, with ellipses referring to the text of Table 5 (relating to water quality criteria for toxic substances), which appeared at 38 Pa.B. 248.

STATE EMPLOYEES' RETIREMENT BOARD

[4 PA. CODE CH. 247]

Death Benefits

The State Employees' Retirement Board (Board) proposes to amend 4 Pa. Code § 247.7 (relating to death benefits) by adding subsection (c). This new subsection states what information should be contained on a State Employees' Retirement System (SERS) nomination of beneficiary form for it to be considered valid by SERS.

A. Effective Date

The proposed amendment will go into effect upon publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin as a final-form rulemaking.

B. Contact Person

For further information contact Robert Gentzel, Director of Communications and Policy, State Employees' Retirement System, 30 North Third Street, Suite 150, Harrisburg, PA 17101-1716, (717) 787-9657 or Jill Straub, Assistant Counsel, State Employees' Retirement System, 30 North Third Street, Suite 150, Harrisburg, PA 17101-1716, (717) 783-7317. Information regarding submitting comments on this proposal appears in Section H of this preamble.

C. Statutory Authority

This proposed amendment is being promulgated under the authority of 71 Pa.C.S. § 5902(h) (relating to administrative duties of the board).

D. Background and Purpose

This additional subsection states what information must be contained on a SERS nomination of beneficiary form for it to be considered valid by SERS.

E. Benefits, Costs and Compliance

Benefits

The proposed amendment is intended to alleviate confusion and prevent possible disputes with regard to proper naming of beneficiaries by members.

Costs

There are no costs to the Commonwealth, its citizens or State employees associated with this proposal.

Compliance Costs

The proposed amendment is not expected to impose any additional compliance costs.

F. Sunset Review

A sunset review is not applicable.

G. Regulatory Review

Under section 5(a) of the Regulatory Review Act (act) (71 P.S. § 745.5(a)), on January 18, 2008, the Board submitted a copy of the proposed additional subsection to the Independent Regulatory Review Commission (IRRC) and the Chairpersons of the House State Government Committee and the Senate Finance Committee. In addition to submitting the proposed additional subsection, the Board has provided IRRC and the Committees with a detailed Regulatory Analysis Form. A copy of this material is available to the public upon request.

Under section 5(g) of the act, if IRRC has objections to any portion of the proposed additional subsection, it will notify the Board within 10 days of the close of the Committees' review period. The notification shall specify the regulatory review criteria that have not been met by the portion of the proposed additional subsection to which an objection has been made. The act specifies detailed procedures for review by the General Assembly and the Governor of objections raised by IRRC prior to final publication of the additional subsection by the Board.

H. Public Comments

Written Comments. Interested persons are invited to submit comments regarding the proposed additional subsection to Robert Gentzel, Director of Communications and Policy, State Employees' Retirement System, 30 North Third Street, Suite 150, Harrisburg, PA 17101-1716. Comments submitted by facsimile will not be accepted. The Board must receive comments, suggestions or objections within 30 days of publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

Electronic Comments. Comments may be submitted electronically to the Board at rgentzel@state.pa.us and must be received by the Board within 30 days of publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin. A subject heading of the proposal and a return name and address must be included in each transmission. If an acknowledgment of electronic comments is not received by the sender within 2 working days, the comments should be retransmitted to ensure receipt.

(c) Beneficiary nomination. To be considered valid, any nomination of beneficiary form filed by a member after _____ (Editor's Note: The blank refers to the effective date of adoption of this proposed rulemaking.) should contain the following information, all of which should be current as of the date of the member's execution thereof:

(1) If a natural person is designated by the member as the member's beneficiary, included with that designation should be the name of the person along with the person's date of birth and address. (A designation solely by relationship is not a valid nomination.)

(2) If a trust is designated by the member as the member's beneficiary, included with that designation should be the name of the trust along with the names of the trustees, the date the trust was established and the addresses of the trustees.

(3) If the member's estate is designated by the member as the member's beneficiary, included with that designation should be the names of the executors of the estate and the addresses of the executors.

(4) If a corporation, partnership, limited liability company, business trust, other association, governmental entity (other than the Commonwealth) or foundation is designated by the member as the member's beneficiary, included with that designation should be the full name of the corporation, partnership, limited liability company, business trust, other association, governmental entity or foundation along with the full name and address of the individual at the entity who should be contacted upon the death of the member.

C. Statutory Authority

This proposed amendment is being made under the authority of 71 Pa.C.S. § 5902(h) (relating to administrative duties of the board).

D. Background and Purpose

This proposed amendment will clarify the definition of the term "beneficiary" by defining the words "person" or "persons." It also removes the gender specific terms currently in the definition and replaces them with gender neutral terms. Finally, it removes the operative provisions regarding payment to an estate or next of kin if a beneficiary is not designated by a member.

E. Benefits, Costs and Compliance

Benefits

The proposed amendment is intended to alleviate confusion and prevent possible disputes with regard to proper naming of beneficiaries by members.

Costs

There are no costs to the Commonwealth, its citizens or State employees associated with this proposal.

Compliance Costs

The proposed amendment is not expected to impose any additional compliance costs on State employees.

F. Sunset Review

A sunset review is not applicable.

G. Regulatory Review

[4 PA. CODE CH. 241]

Electronic Submission of Documents and Electronic Transactions

The State Employees' Retirement Board (Board) proposes to amend 4 Pa. Code Chapter 241 (relating to preliminary provisions) by adding § 241.2 (relating to electronic submission of documents and electronic transactions).

A. Effective Date

The proposed rulemaking will go into effect upon publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin as a final-form rulemaking.

B. Contact Person

For further information contact Robert Gentzel, Director of Communications and Policy, State Employees' Retirement System, 30 North Third Street, Suite 150, Harrisburg, PA 17101-1716, (717) 787-9657 or Jill Straub, Assistant Counsel, State Employees' Retirement System, 30 North Third Street, Suite 150, Harrisburg, PA 17101-1716, (717) 783-7317. Information regarding submitting comments on this proposal appears in Section H of this preamble.

C. Statutory Authority

This proposed rulemaking is being made under the authority of 71 Pa.C.S. § 5902(h) (relating to administrative duties of the board) and the Electronic Transactions Act (act) (73 P.S. §§ 2260.101—2260.903).

D. Background and Purpose

The proposed new section authorizes the State Employees' Retirement System (SERS) to the extent authorized by a policy adopted by the Board, to allow members to submit documents or conduct benefit transactions using electronic media. The submission of documents and the conduct of benefit transactions using electronic media must be in accordance with the act and other applicable laws of the Commonwealth.

E. Benefits, Costs and Compliance

Benefits

The proposed rulemaking is intended to permit the Board to establish a policy whereby members of SERS may submit documents to and conduct electronic benefit transactions with SERS using electronic media. This proposed rulemaking, once it is implemented, may save both time and cost to SERS' members.

Costs

There are no costs to the Commonwealth, its citizens or State employees associated with this proposal.

Compliance Costs

The proposed rulemaking is not expected to impose any additional compliance costs.

F. Sunset Review

A sunset review is not applicable.

G. Regulatory Review

Under section 5(a) of the Regulatory Review Act (act) (71 P.S. § 745.5(a)), on January 18, 2008, the Board submitted a copy of the proposed rulemaking to the Independent Regulatory Review Commission (IRRC) and the Chairpersons of the House State Government Committee and the Senate Finance Committee. In addition to submitting the proposed rulemaking, the Board has provided IRRC and the Committees with a detailed Regulatory Analysis Form. A copy of this material is available to the public upon request.

Under section 5(g) of the act, if IRRC has objections to any portion of the proposed rulemaking, it will notify the Board within 10 days of the close of the Committees' review period. The notification shall specify the regulatory review criteria that have not been met by the portion of the proposed rulemaking to which an objection has been made. The act specifies detailed procedures for review by the General Assembly and the Governor of objections raised by IRRC prior to final-form publication of the rulemaking by the Board.

H. Public Comments

Written Comments. C. Statutory Authority

This proposed amendment is being made under the authority of 71 Pa.C.S. § 5902(h) (relating to administrative duties of the board) (Retirement Code).

D. Background and Purpose

The subsection to be deleted contains obsolete language and language that is repetitive of language in the Retirement Code. Deleting this subsection will avoid potential confusion on the part of members of the State System of Employees' Retirement System (SERS) and the agency's personnel and potential litigation.

E. Benefits, Costs and Compliance

Benefits

The proposed deletion of this subsection would benefit SERS and its members. This subsection is unnecessary, parts of which are repetitive and parts of which are obsolete. Deleting this subsection will avoid potential confusion on the part of members of SERS and its personnel and potential litigation.

Costs

There are no costs to the Commonwealth, its citizens or State employees associated with this proposed amendment.

Compliance Costs

The proposed amendment is not expected to impose any additional compliance costs.

F. Sunset Review

A sunset review is not applicable.

G. Regulatory Review

Under section 5(a) of the Regulatory Review Act (act) (71 P. S. § 745.5(a)), on January 18, 2008, the Board submitted a copy of the proposed amendment to the Independent Regulatory Review Commission (IRRC) and the Chairpersons of the House State Government Committee and the Senate Finance Committee. In addition to submitting the proposed amendment has provided IRRC and the Committees with a detailed Regulatory Analysis Form. A copy of this material is available to the public upon request.

Under section 5(g) of the act, if IRRC has objections to any portion of the proposed amendment, it will notify the Board within 10 days of the close of the Committees' review period. The notification shall specify the regulatory review criteria that have not been met by the portion of the proposed amendment to which an objection has been made. The act specifies detailed procedures for review by the General Assembly and the Governor of objections raised by IRRC prior to final publication of the amendment by the Board.
