Authority

The provisions of this Chapter 181 issued under section 1372 of the Public School Code of 1949 (24 P. S. § 13-1372), unless otherwise noted.

Source

The provisions of this Chapter 181 adopted February 1, 1974, effective February 2, 1974, 4 Pa.B. 191, unless otherwise noted.

§ 181.1. Children in private schools.

In order that school age mentally retarded children in this Commonwealth receive an opportunity to secure a tax-supported free public program of education when these children are currently or hereafter enrolled in licensed private academic schools, the procedures set forth in §§ 181.2—181.7 shall be observed.

§ 181.2. Annual reports.

Licensed private academic schools having exceptional children enrolled therein shall immediately, and hereafter annually on or before February 1, provide to the intermediate unit in which they are situated, a list of all mentally retarded exceptional children enrolled, setting forth the following:

- (1) Name and home address of each child and his parents or guardian.
- (2) Nature of the child's exceptionality including primary and secondary exceptionalities when present.

§ 181.7. Cost reporting.

(a) Each private school, as defined in § 181.2 (relating to annual reports) shall immediately, and hereafter annually, on or before the first day of February, provide the Department with an analysis of the total lists of pupil enrollment in each school, including a breakdown of the following costs on a “per pupil” basis:

- (1) Room and board (if applicable).
- (2) Basic education costs.
- (3) Ancillary services (examples: speech, physical therapy).
- (4) Medical services.
- (5) Other charges (itemized).

(b) A private school may not receive payments under any provisions of state law or regulation until it fulfills the requirements of subsection (a).
